FOR THE PERIOD JANUARY 1, 2005 THROUGH MARCH 31, 2005

SUBSTANTIATED CASES INVESTIGATED BY AUDITOR-CONTROLLER

Case Number: 20030324

A range of County Internet Protocol (IP) addresses were hijacked and subsequently used to distribute spam and copyright protected material, violating the Digital Millennium Copyright Act. (An IP address is a unique number used by computers to refer to each other when sending information through the Internet.) While the responsible parties could not be identified, all hijacked IP addresses have been returned to the County's control.

Case Number: 20030357

A Department of Public Works (DPW) contractor submitted a forged release document to claim a County warrant he was not entitled to. The contractor pled guilty to a felony and was sentenced to a three-year term of probation and 200 hours of community service. Debarment of the contractor was recommended.

Case Number: 20040072

A Department of Public Social Services (DPSS) employee improperly obtained confidential client information from the Los Angeles Eligibility Automated Determination Evaluation and Reporting system (LEADER) and provided it to an unauthorized individual for his personal use. The employee also periodically sent sexually explicit and racist emails. The case was referred to the District Attorney's Office (DA) and criminal charges are pending. In addition, two other DPSS employees drove their personal vehicles to conduct County business while their drivers' licenses were suspended and/or revoked. Disciplinary actions are pending.

Case Number: 20040269

Two Department of Mental Health (DMH) employees misused their County computers and Internet access to visit non-work related websites. One employee refused to be interviewed and subsequently resigned. Disciplinary action is pending for the other employee.

Case Number: 20040396

A Department of Community and Senior Services contractor overbilled the County $2,495 for services not provided and submitted fraudulent and/or duplicate proof-of-service documents. The case was referred to the DA for possible criminal prosecution, and the contract will likely be cancelled.

Case Number: 20040425

Two Public Library (Library) employees stole Library materials in excess of $4,000. The employees were dismissed.
